March 01, 2026: On My continuing Demand that the Trump Team Leave My Home

Donald Trump:

I am continuing to exert my right to live free from threats, oppression, and unlawful spying and intrusion into my home.

You are a murderer, a threatening oppressor, a stalker, and worse.

I do not accept your presence around my life.

I reject your continuous exertion of power around my home and life as a means of exerting an influence into my thoughts and lawful affairs.

I am, again, demanding that you leave my home and family alone.

I refuse to be threatened into a continuous back and forth 'conversation' with your evil attempts to spread terror across our world.

Leave our home and life immediately.

You are not welcome around us.

I legally and lawfully demand that you end this constant attempt to 'drive' messages into my home as I read the news, converse with my wife, share moments with my family and live a peaceful life of a normal citizen that uses his right to speak freely in the world.

You have proven yourself to be irresponsible, violent, aggressive, and unhinged.

Leave my home immediately.

Leave our technology immediately.

Sincerely, and with permanent disgust for your terroristic attempts at influence,

Chris Noel Carlin,
Son of Heaven,
Lord of Heaven, and Second Messiah.
